In Accord on Clobbering Kennedy

Barry, Rocky Disagree On Civil Rights, Medical Care

WASHINGTON (AP) — Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller and Sen. Barry Goldwater disagree on some vital issues but they are in accord in advocating a two-front attack on President Kennedy in 1964.

In answers to a series of identical questions submitted to them separately by The Associated Press, the two potential contenders for the GOP presidential nomination disclosed a deep division over civil rights legislation.

Voice Opposing View

The New York governor and the Arizona senator voiced opposing views on how to provide medical care for the elderly, the need for right-to-work laws and whether there should be an immediate tax cut.

In the international field they stood together in opposition to any American pull-out from Viet-Nam. Both cautioned against being lulled by Soviet overtures for peaceful coexistence. Their answers about what to do about the Cuba problem were relatively similar. They differed indegree over the limited nuclear test-ban treaty's effect.

Rockefeller served notice he did not regard answers to the questions as a substitute for a face-to-face debate with Goldwater over party policies. Goldwater said he was willing to debate "the weaknesses of the Kennedy administration" but saw little value in Republicans debating Republicans.

Issues Against Kennedy

Both men picked foreign policy and the state of the domestic economy as prime two-pronged issues against Kennedy in 1964.

The governor and the senator were asked if they felt a Republican could defeat Kennedy without strong electoral support from the South, where Goldwater reportedly has much more strength than Rockefeller. Goldwater said that to defeat Kennedy, would require "substantial electoral support from all sections of the country, not just any particular one."

Rockefeller said he believes "that the Republican nominee, running on a forward-looking platform which really meets the nation's needs, will receive substantial support in every section of the country."

The differences between Goldwater and Rockefeller were sharper in response to a question as to what, if any, civil rights legislation Congress should pass.

Senator States View

The senator said his "basic feeling is that legislation will not solve the civil rights problem." The governor contended that "the federal government has a deep moral and constitutional responsibility to guarantee equal rights for every American citizen."

Goldwater said: "I completely oppose the public accommodations section (to enforce integration on business firms serving the public) as being unconstitutional."

FBI Nabs Alliance Man In Maryland

BALTIMORE (AP) — An Alliance, Ohio, man—charged by the FBI with unlawful flight to avoid prosecution—was to be arraigned today before a U. S. commissioner in Upper Marlboro, Md.

He is James Hughes. FBI agents arrested him Friday at a filling station in Lexington Park, Md., where he was working as an attendant.

They said someone tipped them that Hughes is wanted in connection with a breaking and entering charge in Alliance.

11 Injured In Car Mishaps Over Weekend

5 Persons Hurt As Cars Collide on Georgetown Road

Eleven persons, including eight from Columbiana County, were hurt in district weekend traffic mishaps, according to the Lisbon barracks of the State Highway Patrol.

Five area persons were injured in a two-car crash Sunday at 7 p.m. on the Georgetown Rd. at the intersection of Valley Rd.

They are:
Robert L. Stewart, 21, of Homeworth, fractured left arm, lacerations of chin and contusions of the knees.

Mrs. Lonetta Stewart, 40, of Ord Place, Canton, multiple lacerations of the face and contusions of the left hip, knee and foot.

Mrs. Allie E. Stewart, 55, Robert's mother, of Homeworth, fractured jaw, lacerations of the forehead and contusions of the back and chest.

James L. Liebhart, 21, of 812 Liberty Ave., Alliance, fractured jaw and contusions of the ankle, feet and face.

Miss Linda Dorsey, 16, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Dorsey, of RD 2, Salem, lacerations of the forehead, scalp and right knee and contusions of both legs.

Mrs. Allie Stewart is listed in critical condition in Salem Central Clinic where all the victims were admitted at 7:25 p.m. Mrs. Lonetta Stewart is "poor" while Liebhart and Miss Dorsey, his passenger, are "fair." Robert Stewart was treated and released.

The patrol said Liebhart failed to halt for the stop sign and collided with the southwest bound Homeworth auto, driven by Robert Stewart. Liebhart was cited for failure to stop at a stop sign.

Salem Youth Wrecks Car

Chester A. Paxson, 16, of Michigan Blvd., Salem, was treated for shock by a physician after he wrecked his auto Sunday at 5:20 p.m. on Route 39 just east of Salineville.

The patrol said Paxson was driving east at high speed when he lost control on a curve and went off the left side of the highway. The vehicle struck a sign and embankment and was extensively damaged. The youth was cited to juvenile court.

Treated After Crash

Two young Wellsville area persons had cuts and bruises and were treated at East Liverpool City Hospital after a crash near their city Saturday at 4:10

Lisbon Youth, 18, Killed When Rifle Is Discharged

Columbiana County authorities were making an investigation today into the apparent accidental shooting Saturday evening of James A. (Thumb) Moore, 18, of Black's Road, about four miles south of Lisbon.

Young Moore, who was recently married, was shot in the abdomen by a .22 caliber bullet from a gun which he and Russell Beaver, 14, a neighbor, were preparing to use for target practice about 8:30 p.m.

Columbiana County Deputy Sheriff James Gause said Beaver told him he and Moore were pointing the rifle at sheds and trees. He said Moore had the gun in his hands, pulling the trigger but it didn't fire. He said Moore handed the gun to him and told him not to pull the trigger but that when he grabbed the weapon, it discharged and the bullet struck Moore in the stomach.

Beaver related that Moore told him to go get a doctor and that he ran to the Okie Ran-

Lisbon firemen rushed Moore to Salem City Hospital, where he was pronounced dead on arrival at 9:50 p.m.

Russell Beaver and his mother, Mrs. Archie Beaver, were to appear in juvenile court at Lisbon today for a formal hearing but Deputy Coroner Dr. Roy Costello said "the shooting appears to have been accidental."

The victim and his wife have been residing with Mr. and Mrs. George Short, RD 2, Lisbon, following their marriage 19 days ago.

Losses Running Into Millions

Drought Effect On Economy Increases

CHICAGO (AP)—The drought belt extending from Texas to New England remained explosively dry over the weekend as the effect on the nation's economy deepened.

Scattered rains brought scant relief to some spots, but the loss to crops and property from the dryness and accompanying fires is expected to run into the millions of dollars.

Fires have burned across thousands of acres of forests and woodlands. Pastures have turned brown. Wells and farm ponds have gone dry. Water is being rationed in some communities. The shortage of water has been felt in some of the major cities in the East.

The drought has delayed the seeding of winter wheat in the Great Plains. Livestock producers in many areas have marked their cattle early because of shortage of feed and water. Milk production in many areas was far below seasonal levels.

Officials in several eastern and Midwest states have ordered the closing of many forests and woodlands. Hunting and fishing have been banned.

Although light rain fell in central sections of the nation over the weekend, Weather Bureau officials said heavy rains are needed.

A storm off the Atlantic Coast became a hurricane Sunday night. The hurricane, named Ginny, was accompanied by winds up to 85 m.p.h. A Weather Bureau forecaster said the storm, about 90 miles southeast off Cape Hatteras, N.C., could bring more wind than rain and thus increase the fire hazard in the parched Eastern forests.

On the bright side of the dismal weather picture, the nation's major winter vegetable and citrus growing regions —

S. Vietnamese Suffer Defeat

Casualties High In Battle with Reds

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—South Vietnamese and U.S. Army officers expected trouble when they planned a weekend attack on a Communist guerrilla unit deep in the Mekong Delta.

Their fears were well founded. South Vietnamese troops suffered their worst defeat in nine months Government casualties were listed at 40 dead and 80 wounded, including 13 American wounded.

The government estimated enemy casualties at 30 dead. No prisoners were taken. Only four bodies were found.

The battle, termed by U. S. advisers "the bloodiest nose" given President Ngo Dinh Diem's forces since a similar defeat Jan. 2, took place in a remote area of rice paddies and palm groves near Loc Ninh, 140 miles southeast of Saigon.

A considerable distance from helicopter bases and out of reach of government artillery, the sector has long been infiltrated by guerrillas. Entrenched in fortified positions, Viet Cong heavy machine guns cut up two waves of South Vietnamese troops carried in by U.S. helicopters.

Another government battalion brought in on foot failed to dislodge the Viet Cong's well-trained and well-equipped battalion. A third helicopter force was halted, too.

By Sunday morning, the Viet Cong had melted away in sam-

Ship With 10 Men Aboard Reported Lost

Storm Centered Southwest Of Cape Hatteras

BULLETIN

NEW YORK (AP) — A heavy hurricane hunter aircraft sighted a decommissioned destroyer escort missing since Saturday night in 50-foot hurricane whipped seas, the Navy announced.

A spokesman said the Fogg was sighted by the W2 aircraft 150 miles east of Cape Fear, N.C. The spokesman said the ship was upright but he said nothing about the 10 men aboard.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Hurricane Ginny raked the North Carolina coast with gale force winds today and whipped up heavy seas as it remained centered 100 miles southeast of Cape Hatteras. One ship with 10 men aboard was reported missing. Another was in trouble.

The Weather Bureau reported that Ginny was expected to move east northeast about 5 m.p.h. during the next 12 hours with no drop in strength.

The storm spun 90 m.p.h. winds out for 60 miles around its center and reached out with gale force winds for 250 miles to the north and east and 170 miles to the south and west.

Waves Lashing Lightship
Waves of 25 to 30 feet were reported lashing the Diamond Shoals lightship off Cape Hatteras.

Rescue planes and a Coast Guard cutter sped into the storm area in search of a decommissioned Navy picket ship, the Fogg, with an officer and nine enlisted men aboard.

The vessel, formerly a destroyer-escort, was being towed by the tug Salish when the tow line parted 45 miles southeast of Cape Lookout.

The Fogg has no power of its own and hasn't been heard from since the line parted.

The Navy said the seas in that area are running 40 to 50 feet high.

The Salish was also reported having difficulty steering in the high seas, fierce winds and driving rain.

Cut Telephone Lines

Winds buffeting the coast cut off telephone communications between the mainland and North Carolina's string of sandy islands known as the Outer Banks. There was no indication so far, officials said, that residents of the often storm-swept island would have to be evacuated.

The Navy stood watch at its big Norfolk, Va., base to evacuate planes if need be in the face of Ginny's winds.

Civil defense and other emergency agencies were on alert in

Glenmoor Escapee Nabbed at Home

LISBON — Richard Tucker, 15, of Glenmoor, an escapee from Boys Industrial School at Lancaster, is in county jail after he was apprehended at his home Sunday at 8 p.m. by East Liverpool Township constables, county deputies and East Liverpool police.

Tucker, who fled the institution Friday night, was taken into custody after an East Liverpool Township constable found an abandoned stolen car with Lancaster plates on it on a township road.

Tucker and a boy from Hamilton were reported missing. Tucker was sent to the school from Columbiana County Feb. 20 for car theft.

United Fund Hits Total of $50,294

Chairman Ray Reasbeck today reported that the United Fund Drive contributions now total $50,294.

The campaign, which started Oct. 8 and is slated to end Friday, has a goal of $86,250. Reasbeck says he "feels confident that we will go over the top by Friday."

Thirty-one "red feather" agencies will share in the funds raised.

Troops Poised For 'Big Lift'

Armored Division Bound for Germany

FT. HOOD, Tex. (AP) — A "let's get going" mood gripped this sprawling tank base today as the 13,500 men of the crack 2nd Armored Division poised for the start of the historic "Exercise Big Lift" to West Germany.

The lead jet C135 bearing Maj. Gen. Edwin H. Burba, the "Hell on Wheels" division commander, and his headquarters was due to take off at one minute past midnight Tuesday.

From then on, for three days, jet, turbo-prop and propeller-driven transports will ferry a stream of battle-dressed U.S. soldiers across the Atlantic 5,600 miles from deep in the heart of Texas to the heart of West Germany.

Other planes of the Military Air Transport Service (MATS) will be lifting artillery and truck outfits from Ft. Sill, Okla., Ft. Eustis, Va., and Ft. Bragg, N.C.

The Air Force will send a composite strike force of 116 jet fighters, reconnaissance planes and transports across the Atlantic from Loring Air Force Base in Maine and Westover Air Force Base, Mass., to forward airfields in France and Germany.

This will be the biggest, and in many ways the most significant, airlift operation in history.

NEW MEN FOR SPACE — Shown in Houston, Tex., where presentation of America's third group of astronauts was made, are Air Force Capt. Theodore C. Freeman, 33, of Haverford, Pa., at left, and Air Force Capt. Charles A. Bassett II, 31, of Berea, Ohio.

Official Held In JFK Bomb Threat

OLD TOWN, Maine (AP)—A state representative is charged with allegedly telephoning a false bomb threat on the eve of President Kennedy's visit to the University of Maine.

Rep. Robert C. Cartier, D-Biddeford, was arrested at a party Friday night.

Cartier, 24, Sunday night called the incident a foolish mistake. He said he tried to rectify it moments later but could not reach the operator because all the lines apparently were tied up.

Police said Cartier told a telephone operator Friday evening the university stadium would be bombed that night.

Kennedy received an honorary degree and made an address at the stadium Saturday.

Cartier was arrested after Police Chief Otis LaBree was given the name of the street from which the call was made.

LaBree, two Secret Service agents and two state troopers made a house to house check and questioned 43 persons at a party they found in progress.

Cartier was released on $1,000 bail Saturday. Word of his arrest was withheld until Sunday because of security restrictions surrounding Kennedy's visit.

Grandfathering

By HAROLD V. STREETER
(Substituting for Hal Boyle)

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—By rough but conservative estimate, there are 34 million grandfathers in these United States.

As only one, I have succeeded with very little effort in thoroughly spoiling two grandchildren. Now, you take your pencil. You figure an average of two grandchildren to one grandfather. Simple multiplication will net you a total which could scare you half to death.

Grandfathering is one of the most underrated potents of our nuclear age.

In the sweat and excitement of the dressing room after his Los Angeles Dodgers swept the New York Yankees under the rug for baseball's world championship, the manager, Walt Alston, was asked what he most wanted to do.

Sit down and count his loot? No.

Sit back and horse-laugh at the critics who had been snarling at his heels for a year? No. All he wanted was to hurry out to Ohio and go squirrel hunting with his grandson.

Most grandfathers easily wind up as expert spoilers. But there is a technique to it which a newcomer might note.

The "just this once" bit is a good beginning.

Grandson, resplendent in white, is in his high chair all gussied up for a family dinner at grandpa's. His innate sense tells him the parental paddle is far away; and that fawning look in grandfather's eye is worth exploiting.

So he rebels at wearing a bib. During the ensuing pushing and tugging, grandfather makes his move:

"Oh wouldn't it be all right if he ate without it — just this once?"

The end result: The suit is a mess. The dinner is likewise. But grandfather has an "in." He's on his way.

Now you can move dangerously from sympathy to downright deceit.

In a fit of pique, the little darling dashes a glass of milk to the floor. His purple-faced mother, noting the scattered shards and the spread of white liquid over wall-to-wall carpeting, springs up with mayhem in mind.

Grandfather makes his move: "It really was my fault. I reached over to wipe his mouth and accidentally knocked over the glass."

No further instruction needed. As a new grandfather, you are on your way. Next you will become with utmost ease that menace of social circles: The grandson-storyteller.

McNamara's In the Navy

Another of the bureaucratic battles designed to catch all of us between the lines and pepper us till we beg for mercy has broken out in Washington.

Secretary of Defense McNamara has invaded the U.S. Navy.

He has taken his lumps from the Air Force, the Army and the Marines. Now he has become embroiled with the most formidable force of all.

Admirals are tougher than generals in bureaucratic infighting. They once were licked by an army leader on the proposition that bombers could knock out battleships and therefore battleships were obsolete. But in the showdown they then licked the army leader who had licked them—Brig. Gen. William Mitchell, convicted of insubordination and suspended from duty.

IT WOULD BE presumptuous of outsiders at this stage of the infighting to pick a winner. Fred Korth, secretary of the navy, has resigned because he was overruled in a showdown with Secretary of Defense McNamara. But he did not necessarily lose by resigning.

This is what Mr. Korth should do if unwilling to go along with a decision he cannot change. He now is free to fight.

It is of the highest importance that the decision he is fighting about should be understood before the rest of us clash over it.

It apparently is whether taxpayers of the United States should pay for another supercarrier like the U.S.S. Enterprise, first nuclear-powered carrier and the Goliath of all ships.

Secretary McNamara does not believe there should be. The Enterprise cost upward of half a billion dollars. He does not believe the supercarrier concept should be carried further than it has been carried.

The defense secretary is not fighting just nuclear-powered carriers but extension of the carrier concept. He is committed to the newer concept of nuclear-powered, far-ranging, elusive submarines equipped with Polaris missiles.

IT IS THE old issue with new names. It is the battleship vs. the airplane. It is cavalry vs. trucks and tanks. It is the paratrooper vs. the foot soldier, the artilleryman vs. the bombardier.

Every showdown in the tense and never-ending tussle of tacticians and strategists sooner or later involves the public. We are asked to take sides, usually on the spurious basis of whether we want to be defended in the good old-fashioned way, or are willing to trust our loved ones and ourselves to fly-by-night factions of experimenters who think they have something better.

What we want, of course, is to be defended without going bankrupt. On that basis, we feel like keeping an open mind on a proposition to build more half-billion-dollar aircraft carriers that could be put out of commission by one rocket, one bomb, or as little as one suicide pilot in an airplane loaded with explosives.

We'd have to say Secretary McNamara was wrong because he tangled with the U.S. Navy, which one bought airplanes.

Million Dollars Worth Watching

Skeptics should feel better about Ohio's "Little Hoover commission" recommendations after reading its report on the brand new Department of Development.

Here is concrete evidence of the good faith in which the volunteer "experts" who compiled this critique on state government tackled their task.

They went after this new department under the Rhodes administration as coldly as they went after old-line departments that had been gathering fat and fuzz for years.

In fact, they went after it as hot and heavy as Republicans had gone after the Department of Industrial and Economic Development — DIED — while Mike DiSalle was governor. They killed DIED, and the "Little Hooverites" assaulted its successor with a deadly weapon.

They found eight things that were wrong, in their judgment, and it is noteworthy that all eight can be cleared up with an executive order. There's no excuse for delay.

First thing out of the criticism box, they pulled this one: "Many present activities and plans seem vague and widespread and cannot be described as primary objectives. There is need for more delineation of responsibility and delegation of work between division activities."

There also was criticism of a "shotgun" approach, of lack of standards, duplication of effort, failure to use information already gathered instead of gathering it again and practices threatening to overload the department with unnecessary personnel.

No estimate of money to be saved was made, because the department has existed only since June. But with a budget of approximately a million dollars, against $350,000 for similar efforts before, the Department of Development is worth watching.

It's reassuring to know that the "Little Hooverites" looked at it as critically as they looked at the old-line activities of state government.

Keep Plugging!

What Gov. James A. Rhodes said so plainly in his recent public appearance in East Liverpool was that "proper community attitude" is the key that unlocks the doors to improved economic conditions.

Although his talk was intended primarily for East Liverpool listeners, every city and village should maintain a constant awareness of this important factor because the town that accentuates the positive and strives to push forward in all of its undertakings, whether it be cultural, industrial or some other vital facet, will grow and prosper.

Salem has made man gains in the past few years because of the collective dedicated effort of its many citizens, whether they were in public office, or were officers of the Chamber of Commerce, Industrial Development Corporation or were active businessmen serving an important committee role.

Gov. Rhodes took advantage of his time in the Pottery City to point to our advancement but none of use should make the mistake of resting on our laurels. The winning team is the one that continues to advance, and if we all keep plugging we can make Salem the biggest city in Columbiana County one of these days.

Goodbye Forever

Long before the tragic 114-day newspaper strike in New York City ended, it was a certainty the strikers were going to kill one and possibly two of the papers that employed them.

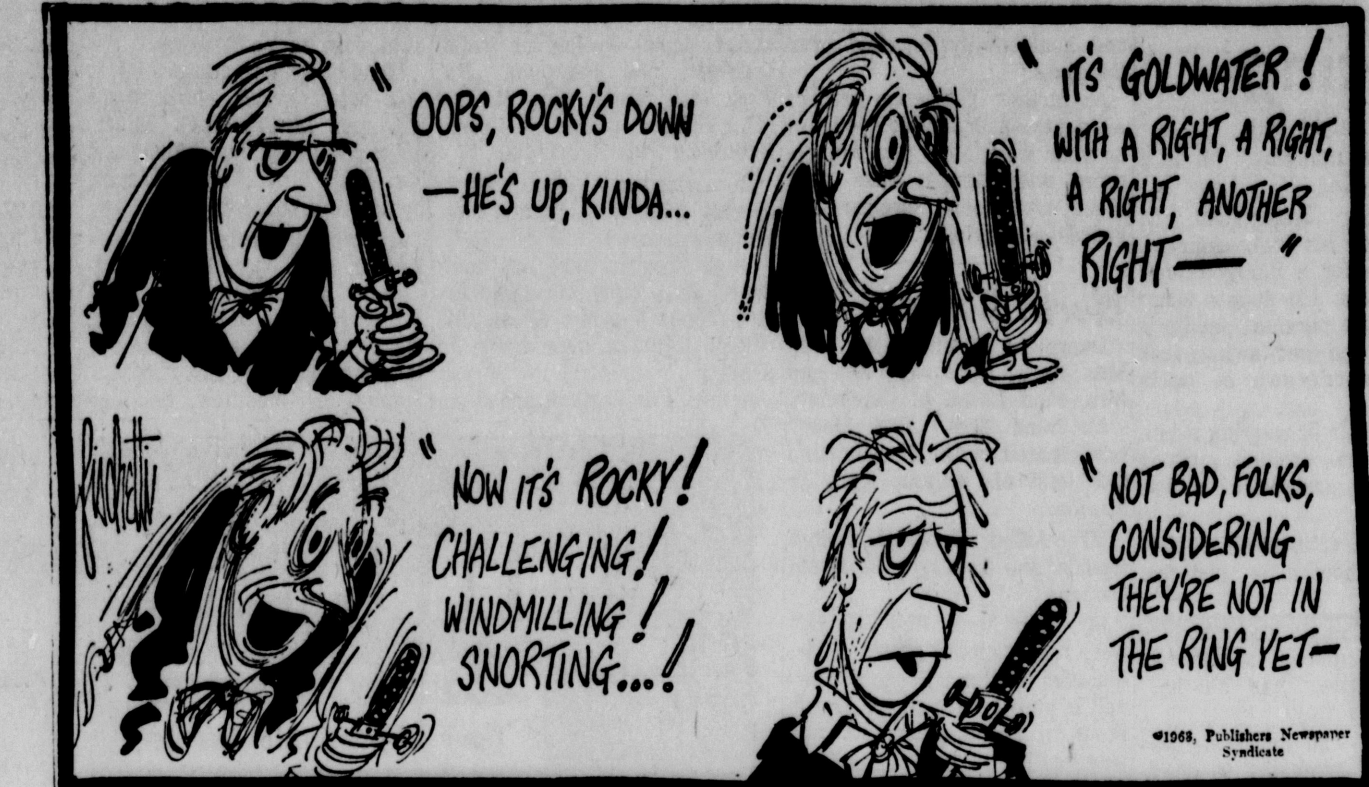

The first victim is the New York Mirror. Hearst Corp.'s morning tabloid. Its 1,400 employees are thrown into the job market, along with hundreds of their newspaper people whose jobs have been destroyed by practices that couldn't have been more ruinous if that had been the intent.

Of course it wasn't the intent.

It was the result. No one ever declared he intended to destroy an employer by boosting his costs and driving him to the wall. But it has happened dozens of times in the United States—and the destruction of the New York Mirror is the latest example.

The paper had one chance to survive—to keep its costs low and circulation high. It lost that chance when its income was cut off for 114 days at the height of its advertising season. Its circulation was bob-tailed after the strike while its costs were boosted.

Goodbye forever to the Mirror. Goodbye forever to 1,400 more newspaper jobs.

Goldwater and Ohio

By RAYMOND MOLEY

The most unusual, not to say incredible, phenomenon in American politics in more than one generation is the widespread demand and this far before the Republican convention that Sen. Barry Goldwater be chosen as the Republican nominee in 1964.

When there is an incumbent President eligible for another term, the choice is foreordained. But in the party out of power many circumstances have determined the choice other than popular demand for a single individual.

Some have been nominated because their managers effectively solicited the pledges of delegates. Some have been selected because of deadlocks. Others have been compromises when parties have been divided. But the demand for Goldwater has come from the general public sentiment that here should be President Kennedy and that the Arizona senator represents that sort of opposition.

THERE ARE some Goldwater supporters who are deeply concerned because in some states the Republican organizations seem unwilling to commit themselves this early.

Certain individuals in New York, who helped to create a conservative party in 1962 as a protest against the reelection of Gov. Rockefeller and Sen. Javits, have been talking about pushing into Ohio and despite the responsible Republican organization there capturing its delegation for Goldwater.

In Ohio there is some talk about offering its Republican governor, James A. Rhodes, as a favorite-son candidate. But there is no such plan now in the minds of Ohio's responsible Republican leaders.

The reasons for the reluctance of Republican leaders in Ohio to commit themselves lie in certain very practical political considerations which amateur enthusiasts in other states should, in their own interest, heed and respect.

I used Ohio to illustrate the practical facts because my information about the situation here comes from unimpeachable sources.

Ohio has probably the most efficient state Republican organization in the entire nation. Ray C. Bliss, chairman of the state central committee, is largely responsible for that organization. In 1960, Ohio gave the Nixon-Lodge ticket the largest majority which it received anywhere.

IN 1962, the Republicans swept the state, electing the governor, a majority of the state legislature, and 18 of the state's 24 members of the House of Representatives. This efficient organization is prepared to win the state for the Republican ticket in 1964. But it wants no pre-convention contest.

Its reason for this is that if Goldwater is entered in the primary there may be other contestants, perhaps Gov. Nelson Rockefeller. This would involve an intra-party fight. Such a fight would consume money and resources badly needed to win in the election itself. It would also engender differences within the party.

Since Cleveland and some other cities are Democratic, the Kennedy ticket will be very hard to beat. If the state is lost to President Kennedy, at least three or four incumbent Republican members of the House of Representatives will be defeated. Hence a contest for the delegation would be a prelude to disaster.

Noting this reluctance of Ohio leaders to commit themselves Goldwater, former Vice President Richard M. Nixon in a magazine interview recently said that the fear of a Goldwater candidacy in Ohio is because the state is opposed to a right-to-work law, and that while Goldwater is against a federal right-to-work law, he does support such action in states.

THIS INTERPRETATION of the attitude of Ohio Republican leaders by Nixon is not correct. The right-to-work issue is not their motive at all.

In 1958, when the Republicans lost the Ohio election, right-to-work was on the ballot and organized labor spent $4.5 million to defeat it.

This time, if Goldwater runs for president, it would not be a serious issue there. The reason for withholding a commitment to Goldwater is as I have explained above.

But my information is positive that Goldwater is the preference of an overwhelming majority of Republicans in Ohio. The most powerful leaders in the party there favor Goldwater, and when the showdown comes next summer the Ohio delegation will in all probability be for him.

Above all, Ohio people want no interference in their political affairs, from New York or any other state. They have done very well by themselves and for the Republican party in the past.

By DAVID LAWRENCE

Congress is about to pass a bill which already is being threatened with a presidential veto, according to spokesmen for President Kennedy.

The bill provides for a four-year term for members of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, but it actually has far more significance. The safety of the people of the United States could very well depend on the quality of the judgment rendered in a crisis by its top military chiefs. If, however, those same chiefs are to become the tools of civilian policy makers, the United States could some day find itself without competent military chiefs in a dangerous situation.

Not all wars of the future necessarily will be nuclear, and there is no sign that conventional weapons or forces are to be discarded. Military strategy is as yet by no means superfluous.

The issue is whether the president, as commander-in-chief, is to rely directly on the advice of the best military minds he can get or whether these same men are to be subjected to pressures from civilian officials so as to require them to recommend what may seem for the moment sound politically but which may be unwise militarily.

If the joint chiefs are to serve "at the pleasure of the president," as Mr. Kennedy's representatives proposed to a committee of Congress, the heads of the armed services will be uncertain from day to day whether they will keep their jobs.

THREE FORMER heads of different military services of the United States — General Twining, White and Decker — have told a sub-committee of the House Armed Services Committee that they favor a specified term, preferably four years. These men have no axes to grind. They are retired now but they see dangers if military chiefs are to be inhibited or intimidated when they go counter to what the little cliques of civilians in the Pentagon or the State Department may wish them to recommend.

The current controversy emerged because Adm. George W. Anderson was not reappointed recently as chief of naval operations. Members of Congress are convinced that he was punished because of his outspoken criticism of the award of the TFX contract.

For many years there has been an impression among observers in Washington that the joint chiefs have been made subservient to the civilian heads of military departments and presidential advisers.

During World War II — before the present joint chiefs arrangement was formalized — the heads of the armed services conferred directly with Presidents Roosevelt and Truman many times a week. Under existing law, they can have access to the president, but they must notify the secretary of defense.

They sometimes hesitate to ask to see the president because it gives the impression that they are at odds with the civilians in the lower echelons who try to make policy in international affairs, in which military factors are often involved.

THE FACTS of history tell us that the whole course of events in the Korean War and its aftermath might have been different if the joint chiefs had been able to sustain their own recommendation that Communist bases be bombed in Red China across the Yalu River, over which the troops were coming into Korea to fight the United Nations forces.

Pressure from the diplomatic side — especially from allied governments — caused the chiefs to yield. A blunder was made which changed the whole situation from possible victory to a stalemate that amounted to a defeat.

There are, of course, many foreign-policy angles which affect America's international planning, but military chiefs who may be fired at any moment for differing with the administration's civilians are unlikely to take a positive stand and make an issue of certain developments on which they have doubts and in which they see military dangers.

When Gen. Eisenhower was president for eight years, the American people had a feeling they had a military man in the White House who could take care of any crises involving the use of the armed forces. But President Kennedy is dependent today on a combination of military and civilian recommendations.

Congress is worried as to whether the President, under his responsibility as commander-in-chief of the armed services, is getting directly the military advice he needs.

THE REPORT that Mr. Kennedy would veto the pending bill if, as seems likely, it is passed by Congress is incredible. What possible objection is there to appointing for a four-year term the heads of the armed services? Any one of them could be removed by the president if he really proved incompetent, but at last the joint chiefs would feel free to express directly to the president and to Congress views different from those of the civilians in the Pentagon and the State Department.

If war is threatened — and it has been at various times in recent years — competent military advice is essential to national security.

Latins' Joint Effort

By PETER EDSON

If you're a little fuzzy on just what U.S. foreign and domestic policies are at the moment, don't let it worry you and wait a minute.

All programs are subject to change without notice and you may have to unlearn everything new you learn substituting for it something newer.

This has happened half a dozen times on our news in the last fortnight. As Al Smith said, "Let's look at the record!"

1. AS OF MID-SEPTEMBER, you could write it in boxcar letters that the United States was committed to getting a moon on the moon before the Russians and never mind the cost.

Then the President spoke at the United Nations and surprised everyone in his administration by saying that the United States and Russia should co-operate in space to save money.

2. Until recently, it was American policy to have no trade with Communist countries — except Yugoslavia and Poland — if it would do them any good.

But today deals are cooking to sell surplus wheat not only to Russia but also to the satellites and maybe even Red China. Even Congress seems to be going along on this.

3. SINCE THE TEST ban treaty was signed, there has been a move on in Washington to cut down U.S. forces in Europe because Russia was, being so friendly they wouldn't be needed.

West German Foreign Minister Gerhard Schroeder made a hurry-up visit to Washington, however, and then it was announced in Bonn that the U.S. would not cut European forces.

4. ALL SUMMER LONG, the Kennedy administration has insisted it wanted both a tax cut bill and a civil rights bill enacted this year. But after the last White House conference with congressional leaders, they announced that civil rights should come first and that if Congress couldn't pass a tax cut this year, it would have a running start on next year.

A few hours later this was changed to read that the administration still wanted both this year.

5. EVER SINCE THE 1960 campaign, Kennedy has maintained that he was opposed to the AFL-CIO plan for a 30-hour work week to increase employment.

Resting at Palm Springs after a strenuous, overtime non-political work week campaigning for reelection, the President announced, "We're going to find the work week reduced."

6. ON FOREIGN AID, the policy of cracking down on friendly countries that become unfriendly is now so confused you can't make heads or tails of it. Take these cases:

1. Indonesia gets in a row with Britain and the new Federation of Malaysia. The U.S. cuts off further aid to Indonesia. This fits the pattern of announced policy.

2. When President Ngo Dinh Diem of Viet Nam — or more specifically his brother and sister-in-law — began to upset U.S. policies in Southeast Asia and make dirty cracks about American second lieutenants, congressmen demanded that aid be suspended. But it wasn't.

3. When Dominican Republic generals gave a heave-ho to Juan Bosch — the first democratically elected president to be supported by the U.S. since 1924 — aid was promptly cut off and American ambassador John Bartholomew was called home.

Ann Landers Answers

Dear Ann Landers: I was fascinated by the letter from the woman who admitted that for 11 years she had been the mistress of a married man. I'm sure her lover is my husband.

I have adored this man with all my heart these past 11 years — and you can add another 11 years for good measure, because there were two other women before this one came along.

I'm in excellent health, contrary to what she believes, but it's far more convenient to tell one's mistress that the wife is mentally ill, or that she suffers from headaches, backaches, exhaustion and so forth. This provides an excellent excuse for seeking outside company and it makes the mistress believe she is filling a vital need in his life.

I've dedicated myself to being a good mother, an active and useful member of the community, and I'm determined to hold my head up. Life would be infinitely easier, however, if well-meaning "friends" didn't feel it their moral obligation to tell me what is going on.

I hope to face the future with courage and to wait patiently until my man comes home for good. I will welcome him back and yes — even push his wheelchair — because I love him and I always will. — GRISelda.

The Bad Penny

Dear Ann: Please tell that mistress of 11 years that her letter scored a bull's eye. It's my husband she has, all right, and she can have him.

I've been begging the big clown to clear out for the last six years. I've told him I'm sick and tired of covering up for him with the kids. I've even packed his clothes and ordered him to leave. But do you know what he says?

"Hon-y, that woman can't shine your shoes. Please stick with me until I get this foolishness out of my system."

So I'm sticking — with the clear understanding that the first time he embarrasses me or his children by appearing on a public sidewalk with that dame I'll knock his block off.

Ontario Heard From

Dear Ann: Please wire me collect either yes or no. Did that letter from the 11-year mistress come from Hamilton, Ont.? My husband has been acting funny since 1952 and it all figures. Thanks, Mom. — T. C. L.

Dear T. C. L.: Sorry I will not tell you where the letter came from, but I will tell you that it did not come from Hamilton. And I'm not your mother.

Guided Missiles

Dear Ann: I'm so furious I could chew nails. Thursday's mail brought a Chicago newspaper clipping of your column about the woman who has been a mistress for 11 years. Friday morning I received a clipping of the same column — from Detroit. Saturday I got another clipping — this one from Grand Rapids, Mich.

My husband and I have been married for 11 years and I can't figure out whether someone thinks we are living together without the benefit of clergy — or whether I'm being told in a not-so-subtle way that my husband has a mistress. What does this sound like to you? — BUNDLE OF NERVES.

Dear Bundie: It sounds like you know a needle artist with an air travel card. Forget it.

Bad Deal for Wife

Dear Ann: You'll never print this letter because it doesn't support your stupid, outdated Puritanical advice.

I would like to say I hope the man doesn't marry her because it will spoil everything.

A mistress doesn't have to wash the guy's socks or listen to him snore either does she have to put up with his miserable relatives or his boring boss. His wife gets him at his worst. I've been a wife twice and I'll never be one again. — GOT IT MADE.

The Doctor Says

By Dr. WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT

Health Questions And Answers

Q - After X-ray treatment does a cancer ever heal completely or is its growth just arrested?

Dr. Brandstadt fails to reach remote parts of the body where a few cancer cells remain.

Q - What are the symptoms of Asian flu and why is it more dangerous than other types of flu? How long after you get sick with it can you spread it to others?

A - The symptoms of any type of flu are cough, fever, headache, general indisposition, aching all over and loss of appetite. In the last few years the Asian strain of the flu virus has been the predominant type seen in this country. The term "flu," however, is loosely applied to a great variety of upper respiratory infections that are not true influenza and are not as severe as Asian flu. True influenza of any type takes its heaviest toll among the very young, the very old and the pregnant. You can spread it to others a day or two before the onset and for about a week thereafter.

Q - Please explain the meaning of amino acids and nicotinic acid.

A - When proteins are broken down in the process of digestion they are absorbed in the blood as amino acids. The body uses these as building blocks to form the proteins needed in muscles, nerves and other tissues.

Q - My doctor says that I have Banti's disease. What causes it and what can be done for it?

A - You have a form of anemia that is associated with enlargement of the spleen. In some victims there is bleeding into the stomach followed by vomiting. Others notice a marked heaviness in the abdomen due to the enlarged spleen. Victims frequently complain of hemorrhoids or piles. Bleeding from the stomach is the chief hazard and when it occurs transfusion is necessary followed by the taking of iron in some form. Several operations have been recommended and some form of operation offers the best hope for a cure. The type of operation to be performed should be left up to your surgeon.

Q - How closely related are rheumatoid arthritis and lupus erythematosus?

A - Most persons with lupus sooner or later have an involvement of their joints. Often this is the first manifestation of the disease. On the other hand, there is nothing to prevent a person who has rheumatoid arthritis from getting lupus or vice versa.

what YOU should know about FLU

Nobody knows whether influenza will strike this year in the same epidemic proportions it reached in the fall and winter of 1957-58. However we must be on guard against a disease that is ever imminent and can prove so costly.

PROTECTION IS SIMPLE
Have your physician give you the simple protective vaccine that can safeguard you against the discomfort of influenza and possible serious interruption in your work.

This vaccine usually takes from 4 to 6 weeks after injection to produce maximum immunity, which is believed to last from 6 to 12 months.

MANY SYMPTOMS
Influenza may be accompanied by weakness, lassitude, chills, muscular pain, headache, fever, (usually from 101 to 103 degrees) nausea, vomiting, sore throat or cough. When any or all appear, go home and to bed, then check with your doctor.

GET PROMPT TREATMENT
Bed rest, aspirin and plenty of fluids are effective measures, but your doctor should be consulted at once so that he can be on the lookout for complications such as pneumonia.

BE PREPARED
Check with us for medicine cabinet needs such as a thermometer, aspirin, mouth washes, gargles, etc. We will be glad to give you professional guidance in making your selections.

Judith Ann Davner's Wedding Lisbon Event

Wedding vows were pledged by Miss Judith Ann Davner and John Richard Williams in a double ring ceremony Saturday at 2 p.m. in St. George's Catholic Church in Lisbon, with Rev. William Hohman officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Davner of RD 3, Lisbon. Mr. and Mrs. Jack Williams of E. Chestnut St., Lisbon, are the bridegroom's parents.

Palms, ferns and vases of white gladioli and fugi mums enhanced the altar setting. The bridal aisle was marked with white satin bows.

Miss Joan Klug presided at the organ and accompanied Miss Betty McKenna, soloist.

The bride, given in marriage by her parents, was escorted to the altar by her father. She wore a gown fashioned of Chantilly lace and silk taffeta. The fitted lace bodice was designed with a scooped scalloped neckline highlighted by seed pearls and long tapered sleeves. The long bouffant skirt had a self material bow at the back waist, which fell into a slight brush train. Her veil of silk illusion was attached to a matching lace double crown, entwined with pearls and tips of crystal.

She carried a 78-year-old prayer book, belonging to her grandmother, which was showered by a white orchid, white carnations and stephanotis and tied with lovers knots.

Attending the bride as maid of honor was her sister, Miss Carol Davner. Her gown was of "Greenstone taffeta" with a fitted bodice, scoop neckline, cap sleeves and softly pleated ballerina length skirt. She wore a matching petal hat.

Miss Sherry Hixenbaugh of Salem was bridesmaid and Miss Betsy Davner, sister of the bride, was junior bridesmaid. Their dresses were identical to that of the maid of honor, and they wore matching pillboxes with theater veils. All attendants carried bouquets of bronze mums.

Flower girl was Chrissy Davner, the bride's sister. Jerry Coleman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Willis Coleman, cousin of the bride, was ring bearer.

James Williams was his brother's best man. William Robinson and John Sowards were ushers.

The bride's mother was attired in a mint green brocade sheath suit with patent accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a moss green suit of brushed wool knit, with copper accessories. Both were complemented with corsages of yellow pompon chrysanthemums.

Reception Is Held

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the St. George Parish Hall. The bride's table, overlaid in white with a green net ruffle around it, was centered by a four-tier wedding cake, topped with traditional bride and groom. Lighted tapers in crystal added to the scene. Miss Debbie Lodge registered the 200 guests from Pennsylvania, Virginia and Indiana.

The bride, a 1961 graduate of David Anderson High School, is employed as a teller at the Farmers National Bank of Salem.

Her husband, a 1960 graduate of David Anderson High School, served two years with the Army and is employed by the State Department of Highways at Columbus.

The newlyweds will travel to Niagara Falls and New York state for their wedding trip. For her going away outfit, Mrs. Williams chose a brown and beige three-piece wool knit suit, with gold and brown accessories and the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

Address of the couple's future home is W. Lincoln Way, Lisbon.

Mr. and Mrs. Williams entertained members of the bridal party at the rehearsal dinner, Friday at the Wick Hotel.

Mrs. Richard C. Hippely

Donna Lee Luttmers Weds Richard Hippely

Rev. Kevin Coleman officiated at a nuptial high Mass uniting in marriage Miss Donna Lee Luttmers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Luttmers of the Damascus Road, and Richard Charles Hippely, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hippely of the Franklin Road, at 11 a.m. Saturday in St. Paul's Catholic Church.

Cathedral candelabra lighted the altar which was banked with Schefflera and grape ivy and decorated with vases of white gladioli and mums. Mrs. Leon Kuniewicz presided at the organ.

Escorted by her father down an aisle whose pew ends were marked with white satin bows, the bride was gown in white silk organza designed in princess style with wide scooped neckline bordered with re-em-broidered Alencon lace appliques which also adorned the long fitted sleeves. A front flounce graced the full bouffant skirt which ended in a chapel length train. A forehead cap of matching Alencon lace rose petals held her elbow-length veil of illusion, and she carried a cascade arrangement of white spider mums and yellow snowdrift.

Maid of honor, Mary Pat Barrett, wore a street length avocado green satin dress with matching pill box hat. Her flowers were yellow and bronze pompons, bittersweet and fall foliage in a Madeira basket.

Penny Jo Hess and Martha Talbott were bridesmaids and wore outfits identical to that of Miss Barrett. Mr. Hippely chose Edward Szymczyk to be his best man and Gerald Binder and Richard Kelly to usher.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Luttmers wore a pink sheath brocade dress and Mrs. Hippely a beige brocade. Both mothers had corsages of cymbidium orchids.

Reception Follows
A luncheon was served at the reception in the CIO Hall immediately following the ceremony.

A four tier cake frosted in pale yellow and topped with a mound of white rose centered the bride's table which was covered with a white organdy pleated overskirt over linen. An arrangement of bronze and yellow flowers flanked with silver candelabra decorated the buffet table and bronze and yellow mums were the decorations on the white and yellow covered guest tables.

From the reception the bridal pair left for a tour of the southern states for which the bride wore a teal blue empire styled wool dress. Upon their return they will reside at the C and C Trailer Court in Salem.

A graduate of Salem High School, the bride is employed as secretary by the Lincoln Machine Co. Mr. Hippely is also a graduate of Salem High School and owns and operates the Able Window Cleaning Co.

A buffet supper for 40 relatives and close friends was served the evening of the wedding at the home of the bride's parents, and the rehearsal party was hosted by Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hippely Friday evening at Petrucci's.

Mrs. Wilson F. Baughman

Timm-Baughman Vows Exchanged Saturday

At a candlelight service in the sanctuary of the Emmanuel Lutheran Church at 7:30 p.m. Saturday, Miss Linda Doreen Timm, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Timm of 391 Sharp Ave., became the bride of Wilson Francis Baughman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Baughman of 1390 Eastview Drive.

Rev. Richard Freseman officiated at the double ring ceremony as an altar banked with palms and ivy, graced with altar vases of white flowers, and lighted with cathedral candles in branching candelabra.

William Jermolenkowas soloist and David Freseman presided at the organ console.

Escorted to the altar by her father, who gave her in marriage, the bride wore a gown of white silk and re-embroidered Alencon lace. A Sabrina neckline and long sleeves graced the fitted bodice and lace applique trimmed the front of the bouffant with front skirt bows and brush train. A Danish crown of pearls and crystals held her elbow length veil of illusion and her flowers were a cascade arrangement of white roses and carnations.

Mrs. Richard Falk, sister of the bride, was matron of honor and bridesmaids were Miss Luba Martens, Miss Cecelia Baughman, sister of the bridegroom, Miss Corysue Timm, sister of the bride, Miss Lareen Kay Falk and Miss Debbie Lea Falk, nieces of the bride.

All attendants wore dresses of peacock blue taffeta and Dior bow headpieces of October blue velvet with puffed veil. They carried colonial bouquets of blue and white carnations.

Clyde S. Dovenspike, uncle of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushering were Roger Wright, brother of the bride, Richard Falk, Paul Sedor, Larry Wetzel, cousin of the bridegroom and Wesley Baughman, uncle of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Timm chose a gown of beige ribbed taffeta and wrist corsage of bronze mums for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. Baughman's sheath dress of teal blue was complemented by a white carnation corsage.

250 at Reception

Miss Jean Theiss registered the 250 guests who attended the reception in the church Fellowship Hall following the ceremony.

The white linen covered bride's table featured a huge candle with miniature cathedral and tiny bridal couple at the base, and an all white cake.

For her honeymoon to the Poconos Mountains the bride wore a sheath ensemble of October blue and the corsage from her bouquet.

A graduate of Salem High School, the new Mrs. Baughman was formerly employed by the McBane-McArtor Drug Company.

Mr. Baughman is a graduate of Salem High School, attended Salem School of Technology, and is employed as electronics technician by North American Aviation at Columbus, where the couple will live at 854 Broad St.

Gifts were presented their attendants by the bridal pair at the rehearsal luncheon Saturday noon hosted by the parents of the bridegroom at Barnett's Restaurant.

Hints from Heloise

By HELOISE CRUSE

Dear Heloise: I wonder how many housewives know the wonderful uses for the tube-type refrigerator biscuits? (Bought at our grocery store.)

Jelly doughnuts: Remove the prepared biscuits from the cardboard tube. Fry in deep, hot shortening until brown and floating on the surface. Turn them over so the other side can brown. Drain. When cool make a slit with a small sharp knife and insert a teaspoon of your favorite jelly! Sprinkle with powdered sugar and they are fabulous.

Regular doughnuts: Cut out the center of the biscuit with a large thimble or the center of any doughnut cutter. (One can also cut biscuits in quarters.) Fry, drain, cool and sprinkle with cinnamon, sugar or powdered sugar. Plain sugar can be put on the donuts when they are warm.

THESE BISCUITS may be put in a pan AS USUAL and then dotted with margarine, sprinkled with cinnamon sugar and baked.

combination of nuts and cinnamon and sugar, after coating them with margarine. Then place the biscuits on edge, one resting on another to form a ring (such as a breakfast roll). This makes a fast homemade coffee cake. Raisins may also be used.

Stretch biscuits into a two-by-three-inch rectangle. Spread with margarine and then sprinkle the top of each biscuit with parmesan cheese. Roll each biscuit like a jelly roll, then shape to form a crescent, top with margarine and bake. Sesame seeds may be sprinkled on top, or onion flakes.

SOMETHING different for lunch:

Form the old rectangle again, but this time spread the biscuit with barbecue sauce and put a weiner in, roll the biscuit around the hot dog and bake. The kids will love 'em.

Pizza: Cover your hands with cooking oil and press the biscuit to a flat round. Put pizza sauce, ground meat, mushrooms, cheese, etc., on the biscuits and bake it until it's brown. I use tomato sauce (one can to ten biscuits) seasoned well with oregano and basil flakes.

One pound of ground meat which has been browned well, one medium can of mushroom pieces and parmesan cheese to taste. The kids love 'em—I have eight children—and these are so easy to make and quite filling, too.

MRS. R.M. Now aren't you just wonderful? Thanks a million, Mommy.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: My two small children have very inquisitive fingers. The other day I discovered one of the children had pulled off a piece of loose wallpaper, the size of a nickel. I had no more paper to match it and there was no place I could peel some off to paste back over the spot.

What did I do? I took off the light switch plate, and low and behold, there was just enough extra inches of the matching wallpaper for perfect patching.

After replacing the plate, the missing paper did not even show.

BARBARA GUMAS.

Relentless Dry Spell In Ohio To Continue

By The Associated Press
Ohio's relentless drought will continue for at least a few more days.

Weather forecasters said they can see no indication of any rainfall in the state through Tuesday.

Meanwhile, as the prolonged dry spell drags on, numerous grass and brush fires have continued to harass firefighters. And forestry personnel of the Natural Resources Department remained on constant alert for outbreaks of fires in the state's potentially explosive tinder-dry forests.

In Trumbull County, where there have been 35 successive rainless days, the Firemen's Association Sunday ordered a ban on all open fires and hunting. The association said the ban would remain in effect until the drought ends.

A spokesman said the county's 25 townships would be patrolled by police and firemen, and violators would be arrested.

Sunday was Cleveland's 21st day without any measurable rain, and forecasters said there was a remote possibility the city could get rain before the drought reaches the 1922 record of 24 consecutive rainless days.

Although most of the state was plagued by brush fires over the weekend, there were only a few serious blazes.

Near Ashtabula, 28 National Guardsmen were called out to help battle a roaring brush fire Sunday that threatened a trailer park.

The fire, which was believed to have been started by a discarded cigarette, blackened 150 acres. It started Saturday night and firemen extinguished it then, but it flared up again the next day.

A trash fire in the Cleveland suburb of Bay Village spread to a neighborhood back yard Sunday and for a while menaced a passing 50-car Nickel Plate Road freight train.

Kenton area firefighters battled a woods and grass fire along U.S. 30-South for three days last week before bringing it under control Saturday morning. At least 125 acres of land were destroyed.

Florida, California and the lower Rio Grande Valley — reported favorable growing conditions. Irrigation from wells provides sufficient moisture for crops in the Rio Grande and Florida.

The arid conditions in southern Maine, New Hampshire and Vermont remained critical. The fire danger was accelerated by high winds which accompanied the Atlantic storm that lashed the North Carolina coast and moved northward.

Thousands of acres of forest and fields have burned in up-state New York in the searing days since Oct. 1 and the Weather Bureau in Albany reported that the last 21 months, since Jan. 1, 1962, was the driest period in the records of the bureau.

All woodlands and fields in New York State were closed to the public. Hunting, fishing and outdoor fires were banned.

The New York health department warned that the widespread smog, especially in the Hudson Valley, could cause trouble for persons suffering from respiratory and heart ailments.

Pennsylvania was especially hard hit by the continued parching. The Weather bureau said no immediate relief was in sight for the drought-weary state. Fires continued to break out—34 of them Saturday—across the state's timberlands.

More than half of Pennsylvania's 67 counties were declared disaster areas of were applying for disaster area status.

Hunters, farmers and others using the outdoors in Mississippi were warned not to set any kind of spark.

THEFT REPORTED

LISBON — Over $100 worth of wood, blocks and pipe were stolen Saturday afternoon on Rt. 170, according to Deputy Howard Gray.

Carl Lee of Glenmoor told Deputy Gray he had contracted with the Standard Oil Company to dismantle some small buildings across from the Sky View theatre. He said someone loaded the materials on a truck Saturday afternoon and drove away.

New Equipment Arrives For Greenford Schools

GREENFORD — The arrival of new equipment for Greenford Schools was announced today by Superintendent Woodrow W. Bailey.

An eight-cylinder motor, an automatic transmission and other materials for use in automotive shop classes under the direction of Morrison Poe have been received. The equipment, valued at $820, was donated by the Ford Motor Co.

Supt. Bailey said a new 72-passenger bus from the Midway Motor Co. on Route 7 is expected to arrive this week to replace an old van bought this year from Bert Schaeffer. The older bus will be kept as a spare in the event of emergency.

Also awaited is the arrival of filing cabinets for the guidance counselor John Repasky's office and a hydraulic jack and other shop equipment with a total value of $380. These purchases were approved by the Board of Education at last week's regular meeting.

The board went on record opposing the proposed centralized purchase of school buses on the grounds that service would be better if vans were bought locally and the cost would be less in the long run.

Motions were passed approving the purchase of a new stove for the cafeteria and for opium Title III program that furnishes federal funds for science equipment.

The board has tabled action on the purchase of insurance for the new elementary-kindergarten building.

Rollant McIntyre was named board delegate to the annual convention of the Ohio School Boards Association at Columbus Nov. 12-14.

Also discussed was the need for passage of the 4.8 renewal operating levy and a new 4.8 levy to be voted on Nov. 5.

About 900 Vietnamese troops fought against a force of no more than 400 to 500 guerrillas, U.S. advisers said.

Four American crewmen were injured when a helicopter was hit by Communist fire and flipped over in the mud. Another helicopter lost rotor control but made a crash landing at an airfield 25 miles away after the American pilot was struck in the back by a Communist bullet.

Viet Cong machine gunners also wounded the American navigator of a B26, struck two fighter planes and damaged several other helicopters.

Pre-Holiday Event Set At Canfield

Canfield United Presbyterian Church will be the scene Wednesday and Thursday of the annual Christmas-At-Home open house sponsored by the Mahoning County Cooperative Extension Service.

The public is invited to attend the event which will be held from 1 to 10 p.m. Wednesday and from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. Thursday. Included in demonstrations will be: Yarn ornaments, folded paper stars, peach stone art, pine cone decorations, sewing cabinet, corn husk flowers and candle making.

Solicitors Required To Have City Permits

Mayor Dean B. Cranmer today warned city residents against out-of-town solicitors.

The Mayor said he has received complaints of an unauthorized extorting firm soliciting in the city.

Cranmer requests that residents ask solicitors to display a permit and that if he is unable to produce one, to call the police department.

The mayor pointed out, however, that local organizations and merchants are permitted to sell door-to-door without a permit from his office.

Court

Justice Harlan and White joined, said he realized that the Supreme Court was not deciding today that the Campbell case governed the Genovese case; also that the Supreme Court was not implying how the circuit court should decide the Genovese case on reconsideration.

Clark said that he and the two other dissenters favored the Supreme Court's hearing argument on the Genovese case. He said he felt "it is futile" to send the Genovese case back to the lower court for reconsideration in the light of the Campbell case.

In a footnote to his dissent, Clark said that sending the Genovese case back "will merely delay the final decision which could be made on the record Court."

Genovese and the nine others were convicted in April 1959 in federal court in New York of conspiring to violate the Narcotic Drugs Import and Export Act. The Supreme Court in May 1960 refused to review their trial and they then began proceedings for a new trial on grounds of newly discovered evidence. Losing in lower federal courts in New York, the 10 persons appealed again to the Supreme Court.

In addition to Genovese, the appeals were by Natale Evola, Salvatore Santora, Vincent Gigante, Joseph Di Palermo, Charles Di Palermo, Rocco Mozzie, Carmine Polizzano, Ralph Polizzano and Charles Barcellona.

Joseph Valachi, gangster-informer who was the star witness at the Senate crime hearings, called Genovese "boss of bosses under the table" for Cosa Nostra — meaning he was the top man in the organization.

The rescuers, Richard C. Weber and J. B. Nelson, both of Wilewick, said Earl was in the water 10 minutes before they picked him up. They pursued the freighter with their boat and caught it.

They said a crewman on the outbound freighter lowered a ladder and cut Earl's boat free. The small boat later was recovered 1½ miles from the fishing area on the far East Side.

West Branch Levies Will Be Explained

Faculty members of the West Branch School District will meet at 8 p.m. Tuesday with the Board of Education to hear an explanation and discussion of the 10.1-mill renewal and two-mill new levy to be voted on in the Nov. 5 general election.

The meeting will take place at the new high school in Belmont. Clinton Heacock, executive head, announced that the public is invited to attend.

Closure of 9 TB Hospitals Group Urges

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio's Health Department could save about $3 million yearly by closing nine tuberculosis hospitals, ending subsidies to local districts and other changes, the Little Hoover Commission said today.

Those recommendations went to Gov. James A. Rhodes and the legislature in one of series of Little Hoover Commission reports urging efficiency in state government.

The Health Department survey by 88 management experts on loan to the state by industry urged the closing of these assertedly uneeded TB hospitals: Pleasant View in Amherst; Mount Logan, Chillicothe; Cleveland Metropolitan, Toomley; Trumbull County, Warren; Belmont County, St. Clairsville; Clark County, Springfield; Eugene Hughes, Hamilton; Richland, Mansfield, and Licking County, Newark.

Patients in those hospitals could be transferred to remaining regional hospitals, the commission said, to save about $2 million.

Another saving of $164,000 could be made by closing department district offices in Dayton, Bowling Green and Cuyahoga Falls to concentrate direction from Columbus, the report said. And $420,000 would be saved, the commission added, by ending subsidies averaging $1,600 a district appropriated for 1963.

The report said subsidies for well established districts are not needed and that small districts could purchase health services from the major districts.

Because small districts are uneconomical, the commission urged a statutory ban against districts with cities under 50,000 cent legislatures have refused to approve.

the areas. North Carolina officials suspended operations of ferries at Oregon and Hatteras inlets early Sunday because of rough water and high winds.

A partially completed bridge across Oregon Inlet was opened to allow motorists to leave the Outer Banks.

During the night the Weather Bureau posted hurricane warnings for the Hatteras vicinity and ordered a hurricane watch for the coast area from Nags Head to Cape Lookout, N.C.

Gale warnings flew from Block Island south to Myrtle Beach, S.C., and over the southern Chesapeake Bay.

Browns Rout Philadelphia 37-7 For 6th Straight

Jimmy Brown Sets Several New Marks

By FRITZ HOWELL
Associated Press Sports Writer
CLEVELAND (AP) — Jimmy Brown, fabulous fullback of the Cleveland Browns, is relentlessly rewriting the National Football League's record book.

He added several choice items to his name Sunday as Cleveland romped to its sixth straight victory, 37-7 over Philadelphia, and moved two full games in front in the Eastern Conference.

Big Jim, who carries his 230 pounds with the grace and agility of a ballet dancer and the power of a bulldozer, rushed 25 times for 144 yards and caught three passes for 21 yards and a touchdown.

All that, coupled with quarterback Frank Ryan's four touchdown passes—the other three to Gary Collins—turned the game into a rout and halted a two-game Eagle winning streak.

Brown took over the career rushing record with 8,390 yards in 126 trips this year, only 11 yards behind the 942 yards which gave him the rushing championship as a 1957 rookie, and 65 behind his 14-game output a year ago when he surrendered the ground-gaining title after an unprecedented five-year reign.

The big fullback moved around Fletcher (Joe) Perry of San Francisco to take the career rushing title. Perry had picked up 8,280 yards in 1713 tries over a 13-season span, and added 16 yards to it this year. Perry did not play Sunday in the upset of Chicago.

Brown's 92 touchdowns—he has 14 on passes—leave him a bit off the 11-year total of 105 amassed by Hall of Famer Don Hutson, who cashed 101 on aials. But the former Syracuse All-America is a cinch to break that mark, too—perhaps in this, his seventh season.

Brown probably was the least-impressed guy in the Brown locker room as his phenomenal feats were discussed in a post-game chat.

"I know a lot of talk was going around about the rushing record," he said. "You don't pay much attention to records while you're out there, but I was pleased I was able to do it. I get a lot of help, you know."

The Browns, piled up an even 500 yards, showed authority. They gained 218 yards rushing and 282 passing, and they moved 80, 64, 34 and 85 yards on touchdowns drives. Lou Groza, who had one extra point try blocked, contributed three others and a 43-yard field goal to raise his season's scoring total to 42. That ties him with Collins, 24 behind Brown who has 66.

Sherwood Makes Winning TD In 4th Frame

West Branch Rallies To Nip Newton Falls Squad 20-14

Bill Sherwood tallied from four yards out early in the fourth period to give West Branch a hard-earned 20-14 victory over Newton Falls at Reilly Stadium Saturday.

Coach Ron Dierk's Warriors snapped a two-game losing streak while chalking up their second win in seven starts. The Tigers dropped their seventh in a row.

Late in the initial period, West Branch scored when Gary Barber threw a 57-yard touchdown pass to Yeagley.

Newton Falls came right back as it took the next kickoff and returned the pigskin to the 24. The Tigers ground out 76 yards, and Joe Layschok caught a 46-yard TD pass from Phil Sipka to climax the drive early in the second session.

Midway through the quarter, Barber tallied from six yards out to give the Warriors a 14-6 margin. Late in the frame Layschok caught a 17-yard touchdown pass from Sipka to tie the score.

West Branch picked up 122 yards rushing in 46 carries, and made 91 yards passing, completing three of six aials. The Warriors had 12 first downs.

Newton Falls collected seven first downs. The Tigers were held to 30 yards rushing in 59 plays. Through the air the visitors completed 14 of 20 passes for 147 yards.

West Branch travels to Beaver Local Saturday.

Bears Handed 30-0 Setback By Bulldogs

Bob Mehl scored a pair of 20-yard touchdowns as Poland knocked off Leetonia 30-0 in a Tri-County League contest at the Bulldogs' stadium Saturday.

It was the fifth straight loss for Coach Karl Kokor's Bears, who opened the season with two victories. Poland evened its mark for the campaign at 3-3.

Mehl put Coach Bill Van Brockland's unit ahead in the initial period with his first TD. Galmish galloped 10 yards in the second stanza for six points, and Mehl got his other touchdown to give the Bulldogs a 24-0 lead at intermission.

The winners didn't score again until the fourth frame, when Gary Baker climaxed the afternoon by plunging for a two-yard TD.

Canfield Rolls 20-0; Battles Fitch Next

With its sixth shutout of the season, a 20-0 victory over Dennison St. Mary's, Canfield begins preparing for its toughest test Friday when the Cardinals travel to Austintown Fitch.

The first half of the clash with Dennison ended in scoreless tie.

Coach Jack Peterson's unit first hit paydirt when George McClellan caught a 10-yard touchdown pass from Mike Crossen.

Randy McPhee put the Canfield lads further ahead in the fourth frame as he tallied from nine yards out. Tony Graziano made the final TD, when he dashed eight yards into the end zone.

The Cards are now 6-0-1 for the season. The tie was a 14-14 clash with Columbiana.

Metzgar, McGranahan Score TD's For Losers

United Drops 18-16 Thriller To Warren St. Mary's Squad

Warren St. Mary's rallied in the fourth period to edge United 18-16 in a Turnpike Conference clash at Harding Stadium Saturday.

It was the third loss in seven starts for Coach Al Carrino's aggregation. The Mohawks, coached by George Landas, chalked up their fourth win in six tries.

Jerry Martini put the Mohawks out in front in the initial period, when he plunged a yard. A try for the extra points failed.

Gene Metzgar tied the score in the second frame, when he tallied from four yards out. Fox made the extra points to give the Golden Eagles an 8-6 margin at intermission.

Jim Serridge put the Mohawks in front again in the third period as he sliced off tackle and scampered eight yards for a TD. The try for the extra points failed.

Bill McGranahan gave United a 14-12 lead midway through the last quarter, when he plunged a yard.

Serridge scored his second TD of the game late in the frame, which gave St. Mary's the win. He plunged a yard for the TD. The touchdown came with 2:12 left. United threatened one more time as it received the next kickoff and returned the football to its own 35.

In seven plays the Golden Eagles marched to the Mohawks' five-yard line. With five seconds left to go, United tried a pass, but an alert St. Mary's back intercepted the aerial to end the game.

United made 15 first downs while picking up 243 yards rushing. The Golden Eagles completed three of nine passes for 38 yards. St. Mary's made 168 yards rushing and 14 first downs. The Mohawks tried seven passes and completed three for 43 yards.

The Golden Eagles will entertain Southern Saturday.

Davis Scores 3 TD's For Bobcats

Greenford Handed 40-22 Loss By Western Reserve

Tim Davis registered three touchdowns for Greenford, but his fine effort wasn't quite enough as Western Reserve pinned a 40-22 setback on the Bobcats at Leetonia stadium Saturday.

Davis scored on runs of one and six yards and on a 58-yard pass from Wayne Pagani. It was the Bobcats' seventh straight loss.

Western Reserve (4-3) led 22-0 at intermission. Dick Owen and John DeAngel each scored twice. Owen tallied on runs of one and 30 yards, while DeAngel picked up 12 points on TD runs of 15 and 16.

Sternagle tallied on an 11-yard pass play for the winners, and Sahli on a one-yard plunge.

Western Reserve made 15 first downs and picked up 289 yards on the ground in 45 rushes. The winners collected 24 yards through the air, completing four of nine passes.

Greenford made seven first downs, making 157 yards in 35 rushing attempts. Bhe Bobcats tried nine passes and completed two for 69 yards.

Davis carried the pigskin 14 times for Greenford and picked up 58 yards rushing. Owen led all the ball carriers. The Western Reserve back made 123 yards in 17 attempts.

Chargers Lead Division With 5-1 Mark

San Diego Whips Kansas City 38-17; Oakland Rips New York

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Tobin Rote, a can't-sit-still guy who probably has played out more options than any other man in pro football, is driving the San Diego Chargers toward their third American Football League divisional title in four years.

Rote rolled up 266 yards in the air by completing 16 of 22 passes, including touchdown pitches of 73 and 44 yards to Lance Alworth, as the Chargers knocked off the defending league champion Kansas City Chiefs 38-17 Sunday.

That boosted the Chargers' record to 5-1 and increased their Western Conference lead to 2½ games over second-place Oakland, 3-4 after walloping the New York Jets 49-28.

The Jets' loss dropped New York into third place in the East behind Houston and Boston tied for the top spot with 4-3 records. The Oilers defeated Buffalo 28-14. The Patriots beat Denver 40-21 in a Friday night game.

Rote, playing in his third pro league, has proved a vital factor in San Diego's return to the top after last year's dethroning, and may wind up playing on a championship outfit for the first time since he guided Detroit to the National League title in 1957.

Rote played out his option at Detroit, when he asked for a bigger contract and didn't get it.

So, he went up to Canada, played three years for Toronto and played out his option after a couple of disagreements with the coaches.

But he admitted he might be open to an offer by a U.S. club. Buffalo had the AFL rights to the 35-year-old quarterback, but parted with them in a trade with the Chargers, who were looking for a steady veteran in the event young John Hadl failed to make the grade.

Packers Triumph 30-7; Giants Roll 37-21

Discard Signal Caller McHan Leads 49ers In Upset Of Bears

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer
Lamar McHan, a discard who has been tossed away so often he began to feel as useful as a three of spades in a pinochle deck, has turned a hot hand into the No. 1 upset of the National Football League season.

A 30-year-old journeyman quarterback who wound up at San Francisco three weeks ago in a quick shuffle, McHan completed 10 of 20 passes for 141 yards and one touchdown while guiding the 49ers to their first victory Sunday—20-14 over the previously unbeaten Chicago Bears.

McHan, a Heisman Trophy winner during his college career at Arkansas, turned up at Baltimore last year as the substitute dealer for Johnny Unitas after a stop with the Chicago Cardinals and Green Bay Packers. He was cut loose by the Colts this season and considered retiring.

The 49ers, shopping for a quarterback to replace injured John Brodie, first traded for New York's Ralph Guglielmi. Guglielmi declined to report, and the 49ers finally turned to McHan, who mounted San Francisco's most productive offense since opening day.

The upset by the 49ers, whose total scoring output in two previous games consisted of a pair of field goals, threw the Western Conference race into a wide open battle and overshadowed two other developments—Jimmy Brown's career rushing record and Bart Starr's hand injury.

Brown carried 25 times for 144 yards and scored one touchdown on a pass, breaking Joe Perry's rushing record by bringing his total to 8,390 yards as Cleveland whipped Philadelphia 37-7 and became the league's last undefeated team.

Starr, the No. 1 quarterback for Green Bay's defending league champions, suffered a severe injury to his passing hand in a fist-swinging battle with St. Louis' Jimmy Hill during the third period at the Packers' 30-7 romp over the Cardinals.

The Packers' triumph, coupled with the Bears' loss, left Green Bay and Chicago tied for the Western lead with 5-1 records. Cleveland, 6-0, leads the East by two games over St. Louis and New York, both 4-2.

Y. A. Tittle passed for four touchdowns in the Giants' 37-21 victory over Dallas. Pittsburgh came from behind for a 38-27 triumph over Washington. Baltimore edged Detroit 25-21 and Los Angeles downed Minnesota 27-24 for its first victory.

In the American League, San Diego crushed Kansas City 38-17, Houston whipped Buffalo 28-14 and Oakland routed New York 49-28.

Frank Ryan was the big man for the Browns with four touchdowns passes, a 10-yarder to Brown and a trio to Gary Collins covering 35, 17 and 14 yards. That brought his TD total to a league-leading 16. Brown eclipsed the career rushing mark of 8,296 yards set by Perry over a 14-year span. Brown is in his seventh season.

The Colts also won on an interception. Andy Nelson picked off a fourth-quarter pass by Milt Plum—the only one attempted by the Lions' quart back and lugged it 26 yards for the clinching score.

The Rams, who had lost eight in a row, won their first for Coach Harland Svare when Danny Villanueva kicked two 27-yard field goals in the final period against the Vikings.

Young Pro, Palmer Enter Canada Cup Matches

Nicklaus Heads For Paris After Sahara Golf Victory

By BOB MYERS
Associated Press Sports Writer
LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—Jack Nicklaus, having grabbed most of the golfing silver in the silver state of Nevada, headed for Paris today and something less tangible—prestige.

This remarkable young man, only 23, the Master's and PGA and former National Open champion, will team with Arnold Palmer to represent the United States in the Canada Cup matches.

Admittedly, any francs he wins in France will not disturb Nicklaus' income tax status much in this country.

Nicklaus won the $70,000 Sahara Invitational Tournament Sunday with a come-from-behind 69 for a 72-hole score of 276. He did it with his second big rally in four days.

The first came after a disastrous 75 in the first round, which left him eight strokes behind the leader that day, Al Geiberger.

Nicklaus trailed the 26-year-old Californian by two strokes going into the final nine holes. Then Nicklaus poured it on, and Geiberger had to settle for a tie with Gay Brewer, each with a 70 for 277.

Nicklaus collected $13,000, the same sum he earned in winning the Las Vegas Tournament of Champions last spring. He also won a $4,000 automobile. It boosted his official PGA earnings for the year to $98,990.

NAVY'S 'STARBACK'

Nation's Top 3 Units Win Grid Clashes

By TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer

It wasn't a black Saturday like the previous week for the nation's top-ranking college football teams, just a scary one. Texas, Wisconsin and Pitt, ranked 1-2-3 in The Associated Press poll, each preserved their unbeaten and untied slates, but just barely. The same went for Dartmouth, which extended to 15 the nation's longest winning streak for major teams. It had to uncork a hipper-dipper play in the closing minutes to beat Holy Cross, 13-8.

Texas took an early lead against Arkansas, then hung on desperately to pull out a 17-13 victory over the Porkers. Tony Crosby, the shoeless kicker, booted a key field goal for the Longhorns.

Iowa gave Wisconsin fits, but the Badgers eked out a 10-7 victory on Dave Fronek's 20-yard field goal. And Pitt had to come from behind to beat West Virginia 13-10 on a 46-yard sprint by Paul Martha in the last quarter.

Ohio State, No. 4 in last week's AP poll, took a 32-3 shellacking from Southern California, last year's national champions, while Navy No. 10, rebounded from its Southern Methodist defeat, to whip Virginia Military 21-12.

Unbeaten and untied Auburn and Jimmy Sidle got into the national picture by walloping Georgia Tech, No. 8, 29-21. Mississippi, No. 5 blanked Tulane 21-0, but Oklahoma, No. 6, had to go all out to beat Kansas 21-18. So did seventh-ranked Illinois, which capitalized on fumbles to beat Minnesota 16-6. Alabama, No. 9, with Joe Namath passing for three TD's, crushed Tennessee 35-0 and Northwestern, tied for No. 10 with Navy, romped against Miami of Ohio 37-6.

Salem 2-Milers Win Meet At Braceville

Salem High School's cross country team captured the Braceville Invitation Meet as it outtraced 14 other teams Saturday for the title. The Quakers scored 79 points.

John Tarleton led the Quakers as he finished third in 10:55. The two-mile event was won by Jim Leahy of Youngstown Ursuline in 10:42. Tom Larricca of Niles was second in 10:49.

Tom Pim of Salem placed fifth in 11 minutes. He was followed by Bill Carter, 16th; Wilson, 21; and Hippely, 34th.

It was the fourth straight victory of the campaign for the Quakers, who are defending district champions.

Other teams competing in the meet and their scores were Leavittsburg, 82; Ursuline, 119; Liberty, 124; Warren, 140; Niles, 161; Woodrow Wilson, 212; Braceville, 217; Southington, 22; Boardman, 234; Champion, 242; Howland, 244 and Lakeview, 356.

Mineral Ridge Wins Inter-County Title

Fullback Joe Chambers scored two touchdowns to spark Mineral Ridge to a 42-0 victory over North Lima for the Inter-County League championship at the losers' field Saturday.

The Ramblers, under the direction of coach Joe Rich, compiled a 5-0-1 record in loop action this season, and are 6-0-1 on the campaign.

A 12-12 tie with McDonald mars a perfect record.

Chambers, a 220-lb. athlete, tallied his touchdowns on runs of one and four yards. Muir tallied a TD on a 30-yard return of an intercepted pass to give the Ramblers a 20-0 lead at intermission.

North Lima suffered its sixth defeat in seven tries, and never got a serious threat started.

Virostak scored from nine yards out; Clark tallied on a 50-yard TD pass from Muir; and Houck made the final six points on a 10-yard sweep.

Mount Union Loses 24-7 To Dennison

Mount Union took a 7-0 lead early in the second period, but unbeaten Dennison came on to spoil the Purple Raiders' "homecoming" 24-7 at Hartshorn Stadium Saturday.

Mickey Therault plunged a yard to give Mount Union a 6-0 lead. Dave Kraft kicked the extra point.

The Purple Raider (1-4), with two offensive and two defensive players sidelined by injuries, thrilled the crowd before running out of steam in the fourth quarter.

Dennison (5-0) tied the tilt shortly before the half ended, when Jack Wilson plunged three yards.

The Big Red star kicked a field goal to put Dennison ahead to stay with 12 minutes remaining in the final frame. Wilson then scored from two yards out midway through the frame, and booted the extra point.

With time running out, Duane Rhoades climaxed the Big Red scoring, when he caught an 18-yard TD pass from Tony Hall.

Wilson kicked the extra point. Mount Union made 11 first downs, and picked up 128 yards rushing. The Purple Raiders made 63 yards through the air. Dennison was limited to 100 yards on the ground, but gained 220 yards on passes, completing 13 of 22 aeriels.

Salem Reserves Lose 36-16 To Howland

Guy Handley scored two TD's to pace Howland's varsity to a 36-16 victory over a Salem junior varsity unit at the Tigers' athletic field Saturday.

It was the third victory in five starts for Howland. Salem dropped its third tilt in six outings.

Ed Johnson plunged two yards to give the Tigers a 6-0 lead in the initial period. Handley caught a 60-yard TD pass from Doug Palonder to give the winners a 14-8 margin at intermission.

At the start of the third stanza, Salem got a drive under way and moved 65 yards in 11 plays with Chuck Joseph plunging a yard to cut the deficit to 14-6. Dave Fleischer caught a pass from Joe Rottenborn for the two-point conversion.

Ken Plant tallied six points for Howland midway through the period, when he plunged two yards for a TD. Handley tallied a touchdown late in the frame, when he dashed 17 yards to paydirt.

Fleischer gave the Quakers new hope early in the final quarter, as he dashed 65 yards for a touchdown. Lance caught a pass from Rottenborn for the extra points.

Palonder plunged two yards for Howland's final TD.

Salem Sophomores Rip Tigers 44-6

Ralph Price scored two touchdowns to pace the Salem sophomores to a 44-6 victory over Wellsville's junior varsity in a tilt at Reilly Stadium Saturday.

The winners scored in every period. Price caught a 45-yard TD pass to put the Quakers ahead on the very first play of the contest.

Quarterback Joe Rottenborn tallied six points midway through the frame on a five-yard keeper play. John Callahan ran over the two-point conversion.

Ron Hofmann got into the scoring act in the second frame, when he scampered 12 yards for a TD. He then added the extra points on a run.

Rick Alesi was the next Salem back to collect a touchdown when he dashed 12 yards to the end zone. Tod Chappell made the two-point conversion.

Joe Loutzenhiser caught a 25-yard pass from Chappell for Salem's next TD, and Price climaxed the scoring by sprinting 40 yards for the final six points.

Wellsville made its only touchdown in the last minute of the contest.

Crestview's 4th Period TD Ties Game

Crestview rallied in the fourth frame as Jim Mercer caught a 20-yard touchdown pass from Gail Baughman to give the Rebels a 20-20 tie with Stanton Local Saturday night.

Coach Jim Habeger's squad snapped a two-game losing streak and are 2-4-1 for the season.

Phil Henderson put the Rebels ahead in the second frame, when he scored from four yards out.

Midway through the period, Stanton Local took charge and tied the tilt 6-6, on a 20-yard TD pass play Wes Burgett to Jim Pilutti.

Late in the quarter, the losers pulled out in front as Butch Fowler caught a 20-yard touchdown pass from Burgett.

Crestview tied the fray in the third stanza, when Henderson tallied his second TD on a 20-yard run.

Burgett plunged a yard to give Stanton Local the lead early in the fourth session.

The Rebels will entertain Western Reserve Saturday.

Leetonia WSCS To Meet Tuesday

By MRS. JOHN THOMPSON
(427-2987)

LEETONIA — Woman's Society of Christian Service will meet at 8 p.m. Tuesday in the MYF Room of the First Methodist Church. Mrs. Ed Gotthardt, president, will be in charge of the business meeting.

Mrs. Albert Oakes has charge of the program. Hostesses will be Mrs. Lester Fisher, Mrs. Merle Davis and Mrs. Willard Davis.

KIWANIS CLUB will meet at 6:10 p.m. Tuesday at the First Methodist Church for dinner. Guest speaker will be William Sause, who will talk about the operation of Fordees Corporation of Leetonia.

Members will later tour the plant. Jack Woods is in charge of the program.

ANTHONY J. DATTILIO has returned home from Salem Central Clinic where he was treated for injuries he received in a recent fall from a scaffold at work. He is doing nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. Dattilio of Washington St. will be honored at an open house at 8 p.m. Saturday at the OSI Hall, given by their two sons in celebration of their 25th wedding anniversary.

Giving the event for their parents will be Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Dattilio of Washingtonville and Mr. and Mrs. Dan Dattilio of Leetonia.

The couple are the parents of four other children. Mrs. Dattilio is the former Elizabeth Rohrer of Leetonia.

MRS. ETHEL EVERHART has returned to her home on Somer St. from Salem Central Clinic. She is recuperating from injuries received in a fall down her basement steps.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Ferry of Somer St. and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Clunen attended the Notre Dame vs. UCLA football game played Saturday at South Bend, Ind.

A birthday party was held Thursday in honor of Ricki Lynn Thompson, four-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Thompson of Somer St. Lunch was served to the six children present.

Mrs. Sylvia Burnett of Pittsburgh was a weekend guest of her daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Ferry.

This week's lunch menu for the Leetonia Exempted Village Schools is as follows:

Tuesday — Beef and noodle soup with crackers, cheese strips, buttered green beans, bread and butter, cherry or lemon pie, milk.

Wednesday — Luncheon meat sandwiches, potatoes with cheese sauce, celery and carrots, brownies, milk.

Thursday — Spaghetti with beef in sauce, tossed salad, bread and butter, applesauce, milk.

Today In History

By The Associated Press
Today is Monday, October 21, the 294th day of 1963. There are 71 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history: On this date in 1835, the editor of "The Abolitionist," William Lloyd Garrison, was rescued from a pro-slavery mob which sought to tar and feather him. His rescuer, Theodore Lyman, acted at the risk of his own life.

On this date In 1797, the U.S. Frigate "Constitution," better known as "Old Ironsides," was launched at Boston.

In 1837, Seminole Indian chief Osceola was seized and imprisoned while visiting a U.S. Army camp in Florida under a flag of truce.

In 1879, American inventor Thomas Alva Edison tested the first practical incandescent electric light bulb.

In 1938, Japanese troops captured the Chinese city of Canton.

In 1945, women voted in France for the first time.

Ten years ago...President Eisenhower defended Ezra Taft Benson's handling of the nation's farm problems against demands that the secretary of agriculture resign.

Five years ago...Two peers were inducted into the House of Lords—the first to sit in the upper house of the British Parliament since its founding in the 14th Century.

One year ago...Forty-four lives were lost when the Norwegian liner "Svithun" ran aground and sank off Vikna Island in Western Norway.

East Goshen

Elsie Matti Missionary Auxiliary of the East Goshen Friends Church met at the home of Mrs. Eli Phillips Wednesday with devotions conducted by Mrs. Clarence Mellott. The program was in charge of Mrs. Leroy Osberg, who read a letter from Mrs. Esther Zinn, Friends missionary in Formosa, home on furlough. Beginning a quilt occupied the hand work. Mrs. Guy Stanley will receive the group Nov. 20.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Lockhart visited Mr. and Mrs. Fred Andrie and Mrs. Elsie Andrie of Atwater.

The daughter born to Mr. and Mrs. Allen Lockhart has been named Leslie Sue. Mrs. Ralph Lockhart spent Wednesday with Mr. and Mrs. Jack Moff of Columbiana.

Signal

A den meeting for the cub scouts was held recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Neville with Halloween festivities. Luncheon was served by Mrs. Neville, assisted by Mrs. Bill Huey.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Powell moved to Leetonia where he is employed. Mr. and Mrs. Donald Curran moved to the upstairs in the Powell apartment house.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Cox of New Waterford and Mrs. Della Wilson have moved to downstairs apartments.

MRS. JOHN MORRIS is visiting with her sister-in-law, Mrs. Adam Rudibaugh at Cleveland. Miss Sylvia Dickey visited her sister, Mrs. Susan Raley.

Ernest Gontier returned home from the Salem City Hospital. Mrs. James Angelmeyer, Mrs. Gene Marvin and Mrs. Wilbert Siers attended the missionary fair at the Columbiana Christian Church. N. Young of Chicago was guest speaker.

FRANK DICKEY and Miss Sylvia Dickey were dinner guests Thursday of their sister, Mrs. Isaac Huston of Columbiana.

Mrs. Flossie Ludwig spent Wednesday with her daughter, Mrs. Donald Hays, Jr.

Dinner guests Thursday of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert Siers were Mrs. Lena Morrison of Decatur, Ga., Mrs. E. L. Siers of Uniontown, Mrs. Nora Schoolcraft and Mrs. Nannie Holt both of Akron.

Pond Water Possible

Improved filter systems make farm pond water available to rural families unable to get water from other sources.

Wells, springs, and cisterns still are usually better sources of water for the home and milkhouse, but ponds can fill this need if they are properly located and constructed and are equipped with a filtering system approved by the Ohio Department of Health.

A half-acre pond should be large enough to take care of the livestock and farmstead needs on the average Ohio farm, according to Melville L. Pamer, Ohio State extension agricultural engineer.

Ponds which supply water for domestic and milkhouse uses should be so located and constructed that the water draining into them is as clean as possible, Palmer says. The pond watershed should be free of contamination and erosion.

Best method of treating pond water makes use of a slow sand filter with storage tank, an automatic chlorinator, and a floating intake. The intake, the engineer explains, removes the water from about two feet below the pond surface. From the intake the water goes through the slow sand filter at a rate of about two gallons per hour for each square foot of filter surface area. The water is chlorinated automatically and stored in a tank holding about a 2-day's supply.

The filter for such an arrangement requires a special kind of sand, Palmer says. He urges interested persons to contact their local health departments for details. These offices have available an Ohio Department of Health bulletin describing a pond water treatment system which the department will approve for Grade A dairy units where no other suitable source of water is available.

Dairy Meeting Topic

The economic situation facing the dairy farmer, from both national and local points of view, will claim the attention of two dairy marketing authorities who will speak at a meeting at Columbus Oct. 30.

The occasion is a Fieldmen's Review for representatives of the dairy industry, to be held in the Agricultural Administration building at Ohio State. The two marketing authorities are D. H. Carley of the U. S. Department of Agriculture and Dr. E. F. Baumer, agricultural economics at Ohio State. Carley will discuss the national aspects of the dairy situation and Baumer the local aspects. They will share the morning program with Dr. Roy M. Kottman, dean of the College of Agriculture and Home Economics and director of the Ohio Agricultural Experiment Station; and Dr. I. A. Gould, chairman of the University's Department of Dairy Technology.

Sectional meetings, one for persons interested in manufactured milk, the other for those interested in Grade A milk, will highlight the afternoon program.

The meeting is sponsored by the Ohio Dairy Products Association, the Cooperative Extension Service, the College of Agriculture and Home Economics, and the Department of Dairy Technology.

Camp Fire Girls

Rogerettes 4-H Club held a re-organizational meeting Monday at the home of Mrs. Donald Elliott.

The meeting was called to order by Nancy Wilkes, president, and Eileen Elliott led the members in prayer. Discussion was held regarding the advisability of having different advisers in charge of the various age groups, and members voted in favor of this change.

Certificates and pins were presented to members by Mrs. Elliott. Mrs. Leo Jenkins was a guest.
